

September 2023

Dear Friend of Fox Chase Cancer Center:

Fox Chase Cancer Center and the Temple Health Office for Continuing Medical Education are hosting a CME program entitled, Optimizing Treatment Strategies for Localized and Advanced Genitourinary Malignancies on Monday, December 11, 2023 from 6:00 PM – 9:00 PM at the Philadelphia Marriott Old City.

Our experienced team of thought leaders in genitourinary cancers will present the most current treatment strategies for the management of localized and advanced bladder, kidney and prostate cancer. Through lectures and interactive panel discussion and case studies, clinicians will be able to place these state-of-theart advances emerging information in the context of standards of care. This program is designed for medical oncologists, radiation oncologists, surgical oncologists, urologists, radiologists, primary care physicians, residents, fellows, nurses, nurse practitioners, APCs and clinicians involved in the care of patients with prostate, bladder and kidney cancer.

On behalf of program directors Dr. Alexander Kutikov and Dr. Daniel Geynisman, I am writing to invite your company to exhibit at the live meeting. There are three exhibit levels, each with its own set of benefits (Gold $7,500, Silver $5,000, Bronze $3,000). The exhibit fee does not offset the costs of food or CME. Exhibitors receive a table in the exhibit hall; your company name featured in the program agenda; your company verbally acknowledged during the conference; and program registrations for company representatives. All exhibitors will participate in the complimentary raffle designed to boost booth engagement. We anticipate 125+ HCPs in attendance.

To participate, please complete the exhibitor agreement and follow the instructions noted at the bottom and return to Lucía Tono-Ramírez and payment to me (payable to Institute for Cancer Research (Federal Tax ID #23-6296135). Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Sie & Bailey
